

Business Standard

KRISTU JAYANTI SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT ORGANISED INTERNATIONAL LECTURE SERIES IN ASSOCIATION WITH NIAS, BENGALURU

An International Lecture Series on 'Europe, The Migration crisis' was organised by the Department of History and the School of Management of Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) in association with NIAS Europe Studies, Science Technology and International Relations, National Institute of Advanced Studies (NIAS), Bengaluru, on 07 December 2021. Mr Achim Burkart, Consul General at the Consulate of the Federal Republic of Germany in Bangalore delivered the lecture to an audience comprising of students, faculty and research scholars from both institutions. The Consul General was received by Dr Augustine George, Principal of Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous). Prof D Suba Chandran, Professor & Dean, School of Conflict and Security Studies, National Institute of Advanced Studies. Dr M.K Baby, Head, School of Management, Prof Ramya B, Head, Department of History and Prof. Stephen Deepak, Coordinator, Office of International and Domestic Relations were present at the lecture.

Mr Achim Burkart in his lecture described the role of migration to the European Union and Germany in particular. He concluded that a positive perception among the countries was required to channelize the opportunity for the greater good.

A Question and Answer session followed up after the lecture, the consul General patiently answered them with additional inputs and examples. Prof. Stephen Deepak, Coordinator, Office of International and Domestic Relations and Ms Harini Madhusudan, Doctoral Fellow, NIAS delivered a vote of thanks to the Consul General and offered their thanks to the management of NIAS and Kristu Jayanti College. The International Lecture Series ended with a soulful rendition of the National Anthems of Germany and India.

