

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION DAY CELEBRATED AT THE SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, KRISTU JAYANTI COLLEGE AUTONOMOUS

Kristu Jayanti School of Management recently organized a comprehensive programme to commemorate Indian Constitution Day. Under the guidance of Dr Naveen Kumar, faculty coordinator, Dr Joseph Charles D, MBA Coordinator, and the active participation of student coordinators, the event proved to be an enlightening and enriching experience for all MBA students. Mr Mithun Abraham Mani, student coordinator, initiated the event with an impactful audio-visual presentation on the Constitution of India. The presentation provided a visual insight into the historical and constitutional foundations of the nation.

An innovative segment, "Just A Minute," was conducted by Mr Febin John. Students actively participated by selecting topics related to the Indian Constitution and were tasked with speaking for one minute on the chosen topic. This dynamic activity fostered quick thinking, effective communication, and deepened participants' understanding of constitutional principles. Mr Ibin Issac, student coordinator, led the pledge on Indian Constitution Day.

The programme provided students with a wonderful learning experience, offering a deeper understanding of the Indian Constitution. By remembering and acknowledging the contributors to this foundational document, participants gained a heightened appreciation for the ideals that guide our nation. Dr M K Baby, Head, the School of Management shared the closing remarks on the event.

